

1. Explain why you agree or disagree with the ideas that Taiwan government can get most of the electricity it needs by:
 - a. developing solar power plants (5%).
 - b. building ocean thermal electric power plants (5%).
 - c. building geothermal electric power plants (5%).
 - d. recycling some or most of the energy we use (5%).

2. Environmental Science is an approach to study the impact of human activities on the earth. Since one of the most important environmental issues of our time is global warming, please
 - a. List the greenhouse gases described in the Kyoto Protocol (5%).
 - b. Explain what is "greenhouse effect" (10%)?
 - c. Describe how human activities cause the happening of global warming (10%).
 - d. Describe the phenomena caused by the global warming that we face today (10%).

3. Currently, the primary goal of all economic system is to maximize growth by maximizing the production and consumption of economic good.
 - a. Do you agree with this goal (5%)?
 - b. Explain why you agree or disagree (5%).
 - c. What are the alternatives (10%)?

4. What hazardous wastes are produced at your home (List five) (5%)? What happens to these wastes (10%)?

5. List 10 major ways to conserve water on a personal level (10%).

試題隨卷繳回