2. The translation and interpreting market is highly diverse and demanding. However, the majority of people don't fully understand this industry and tend to believe in myths and understatements about the translation industry.

Write an essay of no more than 200 words to debunk ONE of the common myths below. Please explain and justify your viewpoints with examples or evidence. (30%)

- Translation and interpreting is just an exchange of words
- Any bilingual can be a translator or an interpreter
- Machine translation is crushing the demand for human translation
- Translators and interpreters don't have to understand the material for translation
- Translators and interpreters don't have to be familiar with the culture of a target language
- Translation can be free
