

When it comes to “freedom from government control,” what pops up in your head?

- A. Is it the issue of “surveillance state” brought up in the US after the 9/11 attacks or during the current trade war between China and the US with Huawei as a key player?
- B. Is it the demonstration against pro-China media held in Taipei on June 23, which is criticized by some as advocating for “media censorship” and a threat to “freedom of the press”?

Please choose ONLY ONE of the topics above (Topic A can be seen as either two separate topics or one) and write a passage of 350-500 words focusing on “freedom from government control”. Identify in the first part of the passage the various contentions of opposing groups. Then express your own opinion and attitude in the second part of the passage. Your writing will be graded according to its content, organization and language.

試題隨卷繳回